Video Game

Surviving “the Indifferents.” 2021. (Project incubation began in 2016, with intensive work with a team of graduate students between 2019-2021 to determine how to represent philosophical claims in a video game.) Created by Asha Bhandary, Laura Brown, Tim Sommers, and Jamie Ritzo with support from the University of Iowa’s Digital Scholarship and Publishing Studio. The game illustrates the social necessity of caregiving and prompts users to think about who cares for them and who they provide care for. <https://www.lib.uiowa.edu/studio/project/arrow-of-care/>.
