

University of Iowa Graduate Philosophical Society Conference

Saturday, November 6th, 2004

Iowa Memorial Union

Attendance of the conference is free and open to the public

Keynote Address:

Dr. James John (University of Iowa)

“Consciousness Without Awareness”

9:00- 9:50	“Fighting Against Oneself: The Status of Commitments in Light of Sartrean Freedom” Heather Libby (IMU 346)	“Nietzsche and Self- deception” Amber Griffioen (IMU 341)
10:00- 10:50	“Some Distinctions in the Direct Realism Debate” Kenneth Hobson (IMU 346)	“Understanding Mill on Self-regarding Conduct” Mike Mulnix (IMU 341)
11:00- 11:50	“Nietzsche, two ideals, and the meaning of suffering” George Wrisley (IMU 346)	“Why Kant Can’t Save Me from the Matrix: Against Kant’s Refutation of Cartesian Skepticism” Bertha Alvarez (IMU 341)
12:00-	LUNCH

1:00
1:00-1:50	“What do you remember? An analysis of the epistemologically interesting sense of ‘memory’ Eli Trautwein (IMU 346)	“Universals and the temporal” Ernani Magalhaes (IMU 341)
2:00-2:50	“Jain philosophy in comparison with Hindu and Buddhist” Pankaj Jain (IMU 346)	“Hume’s solution to the mind-body problem” Annemarie Peil (IMU 341)
3:00– 3:50	“Semantic Externalism, Self-Knowledge, and Slow Switching” Jennifer Wilson (IMU 346)	“Knowing one’s way about: Remarks on Wittgenstein’s Method(s)” Tuomas Manninen (IMU 341)
4:00-6:00	Keynote Address by Dr. James John “Consciousness Without Awareness” Iowa Room (334 IMU)	