

The University of Iowa Graduate Philosophical Society 2005 Fall Conference

Saturday, November 12, 2005
English-Philosophy Building

Attendance is free and open to the public.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS:

Dr. Annemarie Peil (Iowa State University)

“What Sense Can Be Made of Hume’s ‘Of Scepticism With Regard to the Senses’?”

9:00- 9:50	Breakfast (255 EPB)
10:00- 10:50	“Intradurance” David Taylor (203 EPB)	“Being Invited: A ‘Listening Event’ Analysis of Questions” Nathan Eric Dickman (212 EPB)
11:00- 11:50	“Reasons/Motives Internalism and Problems of Irrationality” Amber Griffioen (203 EPB)	“Skepticism’s Slippery Targets” Eli Trautwein (212 EPB)
12:00- 1:20	LUNCH

1:30- 2:20	“Nietzsche’s Approaches to Prehistory in the Genealogy of Morals” Peter LeGrant (203 EPB)	“Foundational Beliefs and the Structure of Justification” Kenneth Hobson (212 EPB)
2:30- 3:20	“Chinese Belief Reports from a Russellian Point of View” Marshall Willman (203 EPB)	“Decomposing the Sorites of Decomposition” Tuomas Manninen (212 EPB)
3:30- 4:20	“What, and Who, Will Settle Matters of Personal Identity? A Critique of Derek Parfit’s Account” Heather Libby (203 EPB)	“Realism and Multiple Descriptions of the World” George Wrisley (212 EPB)
5:00- 7:00	Keynote Address by Dr. Annemarie Peil “What Sense Can Be Made of Hume’s ‘Of Scepticism With Regard to the Senses’?” (107 EPB)	