

Graduate Philosophy Conference at the University of Iowa
April 14-15, 2006

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS**

FRIDAY, April 14

3:00 pm Introductions and registration Chicago Lobby,
Iowa Memorial Union

A: Ohio State Room, 343

IMU

B: Minnesota Room, 347 IMU

Session 1 3:30- 4:20pm	“Intentions: In support of the causal theory of human action” Timothy Weidel (Loyola University Chicago) Commentator: Dan Schulz (University of Iowa)	“How Not to Read Quine on Underdetermination” Rogerio Severo (University of Illinois at Chicago) Commentator: George Wrisley (University of Iowa)
Session 2 4:30- 5:20pm	“Evolution and the Reliability of Testimony” Aaron Champene (University of Arkansas) Commentator: Marshall Willman (University of Iowa)	“The Problem with Q- Memory” Joanne Lau (Western Michigan University) Commentator: Tom Javoroski (University of Iowa)

Session 3 - 5:30 pm
Keynote address – Indiana
Room, 346 IMU
“A descriptivist account of indexicals”
Dr. Francesco Orilia
University of Macereta, Italy

Dinner and libations to follow the keynote address.

SATURDAY, April 15

9:00-9:50am COFFEE (255 English-Philosophy Building) – NOTE: not in the IMU!!!

A: Indiana Room, 346 IMU
B: Michigan Room, 351 IMU

Session 4 10:00-	“The Radical Indeterminacy and Modest Practical Presuppositions	“A Critique of Kripke’s Error Objection Against the Dispositional Theory of
---------------------------------	--	--

10:50am	of Kant’s Moral Theory” Sean P. Walsh (University of Notre Dame) Commentator: Brett Gaul (University of Iowa)	Meaning” Chrysolia Gitsoulis (CUNY Graduate Center) Commentator: Ben Hassman (University of Iowa)
Session 5 11:00-11:50am	“Do we need a minimalist conception of human rights in international relations? A discussion of Rawls’ understanding of human rights” Ionel Zamfir (Saint Louis University) Commentator: Chris Lammer-Heindel (University of Iowa)	“Truth, Tense, and Self-Ascription” Christopher Ragg (Western Michigan University) Commentator: David Taylor (University of Iowa)
12:00-1:30pm	LUNCH	LUNCH
Session 6 1:30-2:20pm	“Libet and the Accuracy Problem of Subjective Timing” Adam Felz (Florida State University) Commentator: Jessica Engelking (University of Iowa)	“Adams, Grace and the Problem of Evil” Daniel J. Wirth (Western Michigan University) Commentator: Bertha Alvarez Manninen (Purdue University)

Session 7 2:30- 3:20pm	“Brian Loar: Motivating Explanatory Psychological Autonomy” Michael Ferreira (University of Missouri – St. Louis) Commentator: Shawn Akbar (University of Iowa)	“Reflections on Intentionality: An Application of the Methods of the Philosophical Investigations” Todd A. Kukla (U. of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign) Commentator: Tuomas Manninen (University of Iowa)
Session 8 3:30- 4:20pm	“Blame and Davidson’s Conception of Akrasia” Ryan Long (University of Chicago) Commentator: Amber Griffioen (University of Iowa)	“Is ‘Interference’ the Solution to the Knowability Paradox?” Nicholaos Jones (Ohio State University) Commentator: Nathan Blower (University of Iowa)