

University of Iowa Graduate Philosophical Society Fall Conference

November 16, 2013

Pappajohn Business Building

Keynote Address:

Sarah Paul, University of Wisconsin Madison

“Doxastic Self-Control”

Time	Room	Speaker	Title
8:30am-8:55am	Coffee and Bagels
9:00am-9:50am	S207	Anthony Parisi	“Conway’s Game of Time Travel”
	S307	Landon D.C. Elkind	“Newman v. Russell”
10:00am-10:50am	S207	Ryan Cobb	“Is Knowledge Closed Under Known Entailment?”
	S307	Ian MacMillan	“That Begg the Question: What is Begging the Question?”
11:00am-12:50pm	S207	Keynote Address: Sarah Paul “Doxastic Self-Control”
1:00pm-2:30pm	Lunch
2:40pm-3:30pm	S207	Phillip Ricks	“Questions in Environmental Ethics”
	S307	Bryan Appley	“Did Aristotle Improve on Moore?”
3:40pm-4:30pm	S207	Matthew Childers	“Spinoza and Hume on Superstition”
	S307	Chris Dyer	“Problems with Truth: Scope, Mixing, and Truth Pluralism”
4:40pm-6:00pm	S207	Distinguished Graduate Speaker: Brian Collins “A Unique Metaphysical Problem for Moral Realism”

There will be a potluck after the conference held at the residence of Sam Taylor, 910½ South Summit Street, Iowa City, IA 52240